TYPES OF CYBER BULLYING

FLAMMING

Flaming is a more aggressive form of online harassment, characterized by the use of insulting, angry, or intimidating language.

HARASSMENT

This involves persistent and hurtful online messages sent to a victim, often containing threats or derogatory language.

EXCLUSION

This involves intentionally leaving someone out of online groups, message threads, or other social activities.

CYBER STALKING

Cyberstalking is a serious form of cyberbullying that involves using technology to threaten or harass someone, making them feel unsafe.

OUTING

This involves revealing someone's private information online without their consent, often with the intention of embarrassing or humiliating them.

DOXING

Doxing, or "doc-dropping," involves maliciously sharing personal data about an individual online that wouldn't normally be publicly known.
